Whether it be energetic or relaxing we have a wonderful break just for you.

The Extraordinary in the Ordinary

On the first May Bank Holiday weekend, come and participate in this third weekend for adults, at the Tyn Y Nant Christian Centre.

You can enjoy a range of energetic or relaxed activity, enjoy the surroundings of Tyn Y Nant and the Lleyn Peninsula and benefit from our speaker for the weekend John Kearns.

Tyn Y Nant Christian Centre

The centre is set in its own grounds on the beautiful Lleyn Peninsula about 3 miles from Pwllheli. The site has existed since the mid 60's and is in the process of ongoing development. The centre now boasts state of the art catering facilities and brand new accommodation facilities.

Whether you are a regular visitor to what is affectionately known as "Camp" or you have never been before we are sure you will have a wonderful time. To view the site visit www.mcyk.co.uk.

The Accommodation

During 2011 the accommodation was improved significantly. We now boast heated en suite facilities for everyone. (subject to availability)

Couples will each be allocated a room. If you are coming on your own or with group of friends and you are willing to share please indicate that on the booking form.

You will need to bring your own duvet/sheets or sleeping bag and pillow cases. Pillows and blankets are provided.

Activities

In addition to the Spiritual Programme there will be optional activities.

We are finalising a range of interesting options which could be available during the weekend. We will forward details to those who book for the weekend in due course. Additional payments may apply and should be paid for at the time of booking the activity.

So you can participate each day in an activity or on the other hand you can just do your own thing, such as visiting the area, shops in Abersoch, eat Cadwalladers ice cream, or travel on the little trains of Wales. you can even just acquaint yourself with the site.

Above all we hope you will enjoy your time individually and corporately, relax, enjoy good food and enjoy meeting new friends and catching up with those you know.

We will be joined over the weekend by our speaker, John Kearns.

John was born and bred in Anfield, Liverpool. He worked as a mechanical engineer for 25 years. 20 years ago, he embarked on theological training and for all of that time has been leading Old Roan Baptist Church in Liverpool.

He has been married to Linda for 30 years. He is a very able communicator and teacher but is sensitive to individual needs in the area of pastoral care. His style is very relaxed and he has an engaging ability to get across deep theological issues using his 'Scouse' sense of humour.

John will explore issues around the Extraordinary in the Ordinary each morning and offer a short thought following our evening meals.

As places will be limited you are advised to book early.

Your hosts for the weekend look forward to welcoming you.
